Re: Anita Bowen v. Fabian, Cohen & Hall, LLP, et al
Case No. 24-cv-03322

Dear Judge Rearden,

I write to explain why there are two copies of my papers in the system. I timely filed my Objection to the Magistrate's Report and Recommendation with an Affidavit and two Exhibits last Friday and then filed a notarized copy of the same Affidavit on Saturday. Because I am not yet fully familiar with the ECF filing rules, specifically the rules regarding the categorization and attachment of documents, I contacted the ECF Help Desk today and the person with whom I spoke recommended I re-classify and re-file the documents. He recommended I remove the Affidavit from the Exhibits and file it as a separate but related document and under a different category. I did that today. All of the documents are identical with the exception of the notarization.

I am very sorry for any inconvenience.

Respectfully,

Anita Bowen

Pursuant to Rule 1.D of the Court's Individual Rules and Practices in Civil Cases, "[a]ny . . . corrected filing . . . shall be filed with a redline showing all differences between the original and revised filing." By May 16, 2025, Plaintiff shall file the required redline comparing her corrected affidavit at ECF No. 45 with the original affidavit at ECF No. 44-1.

The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate ECF No. 45.

Anita Bowen

SO ORDERED.
